Great Thanksgiving

The drama team leads this.

The Lord be with you
And also with you
Lift up your hearts
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise!

Preface

The presiding minister continues with these words:

Yes it is right, O God, to thank you, and to praise you. We should thank you and praise you, and we are excited to thank you and praise you O God, here at CLAY, and always. With our hearts and our voices, and our singing and our dancing we thank you through your Son, Jesus, who became human, just like us, so that we might know you. And so we sing to you with all our hearts, joining the whole creation in heaven and on earth in praising your name:

Sanctus

The band leads this song:

"You are holy" (#525, Evangelical Lutheran Worship)

Eucharistic Prayer

The presiding minister continues:

O Great Weaver,
You take our threads, the stories of our lives,
And the story of every creature on this planet,
And you weave them into one amazing and mysterious tapestry.

You knit each one of us in the womb.
We praise you, for we are fearfully and wonderfully made.

You sent Jesus to show your love to each one of us.
He hung out with those of us who were rejected and unpopular.
He healed those of us who had physical and mental illnesses.
He lifted up those of us with disabilities.

He spoke out against those who wanted to keep us in chains.
He died for us, but even death could not keep him down.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat. This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sins. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering Jesus' love for us, we lift our voices and say:

Christ has died!
Christ is risen!
Christ will come again!

Jesus, be here with us as we share your body and blood.
Come, Lord Jesus!

Holy Spirit, fill us as we share this bread and wine.
Come, Holy Spirit!

May the universe sing your praise, Creator, Saviour, Spirit, now, and forever.
Amen!

The Lord's Prayer

Let's pray the way Jesus taught us:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.
