I have reviewed my personal information as it was entered into the CLAY online registration system and certify that it is correct and accurate in all respects. I give my consent for the National Planning Committee and/or its members and/or its representatives (NPC) to seek medical attention on my behalf during the 2023 Canadian Lutheran Anglican Youth (CLAY) gathering, and hereby authorize the NPC to give consent on my behalf for any medical treatment which may be recommended by a medical practitioner. It is understood that every attempt will be made to notify my next of kin or emergency contact person in the event that such action needs to be taken.

I understand that my name and photograph (including audio and visual images) may be used as a result of my attendance at this event.

I certify that I am capable of carrying out the responsibilities of a Home Team Leader and will be a responsible and dedicated Home Team Leader for the youth at this gathering. (Responsibilities can be found at http://claygathering.ca/hometeams/.)

I have reviewed the ELCIC Policy for the Protection of Children, Youth and other Vulnerable People, as well as all relevant protection policies of our congregation, parish, synod and/or diocese. I have taken appropriate steps in order to ensure these policies are adhered to.

I declare that I have been screened and endorsed by our community to work with youth, in accordance with our protection policies for vulnerable persons. I have successfully obtained a criminal record check, including vulnerable sector, and have shared it with the appropriate leaders in my church community.

I understand that, as a Home Team Leader, I will be directly responsible and accountable to my home parish, congregation, synod or diocese through my leadership and I accept the responsibilities outlined in the materials posted on the CLAY website.

I understand that CLAY reserves the right to expel any participant (youth, HTL, guest, volunteer, etc.) who engages in illegal, immoral or unsafe activities, endangering themselves or other participants, or any other activity which violates the rules of the gathering. Expelled participants are not eligible for any refund, and are responsible for their expense of travelling home. In the event a minor is expelled, CLAY will ensure that the parent/guardian is contacted.
